Transferring Credits
Candidates are permitted to transfer up to 12 hours of graduate credit from another institution. Credits must have been earned from a nationally accredited institution or a regional institution of higher education accredited by EPSB.

All credits must be current (5 years), must meet the equivalent syllabus of a Georgetown College course, and must have been earned from an accredited graduate school. A course may not be transferred into a degree program that was used as a required course for a previously completed degree. Transfer credits must be approved by the candidate's advisor and by the Associate Dean of Education.

The culminating experience in the advanced Graduate Education programs is the action research project, which is currently completed in either EDU 596/597, EDU 594/595, or EDU 608/609. Candidates must take these courses at Georgetown College. Research courses taken at other institutions cannot be transferred to satisfy these requirements.
